

Campaign Breakfast Held Here

More than 500 friends of Glenn Anderson from throughout the area gathered Sunday morning for a chuck wagon breakfast and then spent the day talking with voters on behalf of Anderson's campaign for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the 17th District.

Many Anderson supporters, with friendships dating back 25 years, recalled doing the same kind of person-to-person campaigning for Anderson when he was elected mayor, when he was elected to serve the area in the State Legislature, and again when he was elected lieutenant governor.

Other supporters, a number of them college and high school students who became familiar with Anderson when he served as a regent of the University of California and as a trustee of the state colleges, were working in an Anderson campaign for the first time.

Speaking to the large gathering, Anderson said, "We've always stressed people in our campaigns. The voters in the 17th Congressional District will listen to what their neighbors have to say."

Workers Endorse Gibson

The Council of the Federated Municipal Crafts, affiliated with the AFL-CIO, through its secretary, Lester A. Parker, has announced the unanimous endorsement of Councilman John S. Gibson Jr. as the successor to Congressman Cecil King, 17th Congressional District.

In his letter to Councilman Gibson, Secretary Parker wrote:

"In making this endorsement, the Council has in mind your many years in the Los Angeles City Council and as a continuous friend of the labor organizations, especially those of the building trades."

Three Win Prizes in Contest

Members from three area communities were awarded the top three prizes in Southwest Manuscript's annual poetry contest, according to Mona O'Conner, contest chairman.

First prize went to Irene Schaffer of Torrance for her entry "Shore Watch." Second place was won by Leona Dolly Walker of Lomita for her "To Spring" entry. Third place was awarded to Amy Huntington of Redondo Beach for "Thoughts on the Beach."

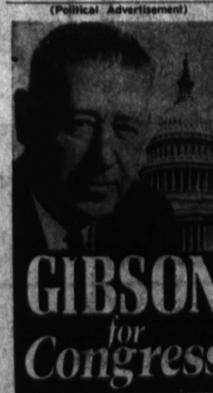

Entries for the contest will be accepted at the June meeting of the club, with winners to be announced in July. Although meetings and general participation are open to the public, only club members may enter the writing contests.

Neighbor Reports Burglary

Torrance police picked up three burglary suspects late Saturday night after a neighbor reported a burglary in progress at the home of Glen Fee, 5633 Michelle Ave.

Taken into custody were Arturo (Tury) Rodriguez, 25, of 20519 Raymond St.; Peter Lujan, 23, 14828 S. Halldale St.; Gardena; and Robert Lucik, 20, of 19507 Entradero.

They were arrested a short way from the Fee home, driving a green panel truck similar to the one described by the neighbor.
